Using gauge/gravity duality we will explore certain features of a particular strongly coupled field theory at finite density. This might be used to study a model which could be in the same universality class of non-Fermi liquid.