

Abstract

We will first review the previous session. We then concentrate on the Higgs sector and electroweak symmetry breaking with special emphasis on the 1-loop effective potential and how it can save MSSM from being excluded by the LEP data. This pedagogical lecture is a practice to enable us to work out the formalism of SUSY.