

Abstract

I derive the multiloop partition function of the bosonic open string in presence of a constant electromagnetic field. Then I study the low energy behaviour of the genus 2 result. I show that, in the simplest approximation, one recovers precisely the two loop Euler-Heisenberg effective action for a classical gauge field when a massive scalar is integrated out.