

Abstract

Boundary states in non-critical superstrings are constructed, which realize pure Super Yang-Mills as a low energy limit of their world-volume theory. The back-reaction of these branes onto the geometry is studied and gauge theory quantities like the running coupling constant and R charge anomalies are understood from the closed string theory.