

Abstract

We review the recent work by GIJT in hep-th/0507096 in which theories with gravity, gauge fields and scalars in 4 dimension are considered. For non-supersymmetric extremal black holes, the attractor mechanism is derived from the equations of motion and the conditions for this behavior are studied. We will also make comments on the related works.