

Abstract

It is well-known that $\mu \rightarrow \tau$ symmetry in the neutrino mass matrix implies maximal atmospheric mixing and zero θ_{13} . In this seminar, after a brief review of this symmetry, we will propose a new symmetry ($\mu \rightarrow \tau^*$) and discuss its implications for the neutrino factories.