

Abstract

The MSSM may have several complex parameters, which lead to CP violating effects. In this talk, we study effect of complex A- parameters (trilinear scalar coupling parameter) on decay and production of supersymmetric particle in next future colliders. We also study a CP asymmetry in sfermion decays and show that this asymmetry can depend on the phase of the A_{tau} parameter.