

Abstract

In this seminar we review the texture two zero matrices that are consistent with the present data of neutrino oscillations. After introducing these matrices, we consider the violation of CP and the value of 1-3 mixing angle in these models.