

Abstract

Recently the CDF collaboration has reported anomalously large sample of di-muon events with associated vertex lying outside the beam pipe. The signal cannot be explained by the Standard Model.