

I will review some of the topics discussed in the meeting of Invisibles network in Paris in July 2014. The topics include bounds on deviation of the couplings of newly discovered Higgs boson at the LHC from the standard model prediction, experiments on neutrinoless double beta decay, sterile neutrino in cosmology and recently observed 3.5 keV line from galaxy clusters.