

In this talk, at first I explain the multiverse theories in contemporary physics and describe the situation of this problem. Then, I will refer to historical criterions of the plurality of worlds. I will discuss lookouts about the multiverses and the concept of order (consisting of fine-tuning). At the end, I would like to look at this problem from the realism of Bhaskar and Sadra's lookout.