

The talk will discuss novel geometric structures, including de Sitter spacetimes, that arise in the description of certain bilocal quantities in conformal field theories. One example of such a quantity is the entanglement entropy of a spherical domain. Also, a novel holographic interpretation of some of the other quantities will be provided.