

In this talk I will study the dynamics of holographic systems in strongly coupled limit at both linear and non-linear regime. In particular I will be studying a system with 1st order phase transition and I will show you how a mixed state can be the end point of time evolution. To this aim, I use the dual gravity set up and I solve the time dependent Einstein equations associated to the evolution of black holes.