

International workshop on

2D Magnetic Crystalline Materials

15-16 November 2022 (24-25 Aban 1401)

School of Physics, IPM, Tehran

This two-day workshop aims to set up a lively and instructional atmosphere for thought-provoking discussion among specialists to explore recent advances and key developments in 2D magnetic materials. Graduate students, postdocs, and senior researchers are the target audience for the session. This event will be held online.
