

Abstract

In this talk, first I present the Horava-Lifshitz theory as a proposal for Quantum Gravity. Then I point out that in the context of this theory the early universe cosmology has features that may give an alternative to inflation and singularity problem. Finally I report some of my results about Cosmic strings structures in Horava theory.